MARBURY BREAKS 440-YARD MARK

University Runner Goes
Quarter of a Mile in Fast
Time of 50.45 Seconds.

VIRGINIA CAPTURES THE FIRST HONORS

McGuire's School Team Wins
Times-Dispatch Championship
Trophy Banner—Richmond's
First Outdoor Meet
Is a Big Success.

The University of Virginia triumphed over its rivals at Richmond's first outdoor field and track meet, which was most successfully held at the Virginia State Fair Grounds yesterday afternoon, winning first honors with a total of 42 points. Richmond College in the Charlottesville athletes a close second with 34; Randolph-Macon was third with 22, and Virginia Polytechnic fourth with 22.

In the race for the interscholastic championship, and for the possession of the banner emblematic of that title presented by The Times-Dispatch, McGuire's School finished well in front of the other three schools with the large margin of 55. High School was second with 25, and Richmond Academy and the School were tied for fourth place with 3 points apiece. The banner was in arriving, but will be presented to McGuire's some day early next week. The management wishes to make announcement to those who would like to see the trophy banner in the event that they will receive a medal some time next week, as a firm which put up the prizes did not send them in until too late for delivery at the time of the meet.

Marbury Breaks Record.

What was undoubtedly the feature of the affair was the wonderful performance of W. H. Marbury, the College runner from the University of Virginia. Marbury covered the 440 yards in the remarkable time of 50.45 seconds, which is just one second faster than the time made by J. T. England, who holds the world's record for that event. While Dr. Grant states that it hardly be allowed as a new world's mark, because of the stiff wind which blew directly down the stretch, this was not in the least detract from the national run, and it will long be remembered in Virginia athletic history as a most wonderful feat. Needless to say, Marbury took this race with great ease from a large field, finishing in 50.45 seconds.

The race of the day which brought to the best competition, proved to be a 220-yard intercollegiate which was won in a heart-breaking finish by Richardson, of Richmond College. The runner left his mark perfectly, and in the lead was going away from his nearest competitor, Marbury, when the latter increased his stride and in the last sixty yards was running neck-and-neck with the winner. Richardson, however, kept his head, did not attempt to sprint until the last thirty yards, when, by a gritty race of work, he forged slowly a few inches in front, and as the men passed the tape, he literally threw himself across the line a winner by a scant few inches.

In the relay race between Virginia Polytechnic and William and Mary, a former won. The first three runners ran well together, and it was hard to pick the winner until the last 200 yards, when the runner from the college runner shot into the lead and never headed afterwards. In the intercollegiate relay race, for a distance of one-half a mile, McGuire's school was the victor, and a little difficulty defeating the High School. The heavy running of the winners counterbalanced the game efforts of the High School, and the former came in well in front. McGuire's second team also covered itself with glory by running away from the Glebe School four in an interesting race. The summaries:

100-yard, collegiate—one heat—won by Richardson, Richmond College; second, Marbury, Virginia; third, Bristol, Richmond College; fourth, Hodgson, V. I. Time, 10 seconds flat.

220-yard, collegiate—one heat—won by Richardson, Richmond College; second, Marbury, Virginia; third, Hodgson, V. I. Time, 14.5 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles, nine flights, intercollegiate—First heat, won by A. Randolph, Virginia; second, Martin, Richmond College; Time, 15.5 seconds.

Second heat, won by O. Randolph, Virginia. Time, 15.5 seconds. (First two in fastest heat and winner of the other to qualify.) Final, won by A. Randolph, second, Martin, third, O. Randolph, fourth, Martin. Time, 14.5 seconds.

180-yard low hurdles, eight flights, intercollegiate (run in two heats, inner of fastest to take first prize; inner of second to take second prize; second man in fastest to take third prize, and second in other to take fourth prize)—First heat, won by A. Randolph, Virginia; second, Brandon, Randolph-Macon. Time, 21.4 seconds.

Second heat, won by O. Randolph, Virginia; second, Keeton, Richmond College. Time, 22.4 seconds.

300-yard, scholastic, low hurdles—First heat, won by Miller, McGuire's; second, Meek, McGuire's. Time, 14.2 seconds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ORANGE, Va., May 4.—Friday, May 2d, was a busy joyous day with the Tomahawk Club, of Orange, Va. For on this occasion the season of 1906-1907 closed with a delightful run just north of this historic place. The hounds were thrown in at Boston's gate across this magnificent estate, and they swept into the farms of Johnston, Kennedy, Hume and Marshall, five miles of pretty country as one could care to ride. Pink coats were the order of the day, and as this was the last drag for quite a while, each member seemed to have left fear behind and rode with the determination of having a good time. Those riding were: Wallace Sanford, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Ellie Sanford, Miss Ethel Wambse, W. S. Jones, Green Shackelford, Dr. Harris, August Wambse, Porter Somers, Lester Shannon, Dr. Ricketts, W. S. Grymes, Jaffry Woodruff and H. O. Lyne.

After the hunt in accord with custom, new officers were elected for the coming season, resulting in the following: Thomas Atkinson, Sr., president; W. S. Grymes, first vice-president; Dr. L. S. Ricketts, second vice-president; H. O. Lyne, secretary and treasurer; Wallace Sanford, master.

At the marine house at 9:30 a portion of the Marine Band made joyous the members of the club and their guests, where the royal set was danced.

JAY GOULD WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

LONDON, May 4.—Jay Gould, of New York, today won the British amateur court tennis championship, defeating Eustace H. Miles, who held the championship, by 3-2, after one of the hardest-fought matches ever witnessed in England.

Miles, who was the first to congratulate the victor, admitted he had been beaten by a better man, although he (Miles) never had played better tennis. The ex-champion said Gould had strengthened most of his hitherto weak points, particularly his forcing strokes. The match lasted two and one-half hours.

Gould's play at the finish was the most brilliant of the match. He remarked that the match had not been so hard as he had expected it would be, and that he had played harder matches.

The British spectators were greatly disappointed at the result, and the Americans were correspondingly elated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—Maloney's slashing three-bagger to left in the second inning and Thorne's fumble of the ball, which sent Maloney across the plate, won today's game for Georgetown, Virginia going down to defeat 1 to 0.

It was a pitchers' battle throughout, both teams playing beautiful ball. Sullivan, who was on the tying line for the visitors, allowed but five scattered hits. Opposed to him was Tom Cantwell, Georgetown's mainstay, who held the Old Dominion down to three hits. Over 7,500 people saw the game, and went wild with excitement when the Blue and Gray right-fielder banged the pellet for three sacks, and later scored on an error. Score:

FRISSETTE WON ROSEDALE

Winner of Excelsior Handicap
Outclassed His Field and Romed in Mud.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, May 4.—Dr. Gardner, 7 to 10 favorite, scored an easy victory in the Montague Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth, which was run over a muddy track at Jamaica today. The Excelsior Handicap winner was considered to outclass his field so much that he was always an odds-on favorite. In spite of the price, he was heavily played. He won by two lengths. Frisette won the Rosedale Stakes by three lengths.

First race—five and a half furlongs—Altho (6 to 1) first, Royal Onyx (12 to 1) second, Sir Tordington (7 to 1) third. Time, 1:08 2-5.

PETERSBURG BEAT HERMITAGE CLUB

PETERSBURG, Va., May 4.—By a score of 6 to 5, Petersburg won from the Hermitage Club team, of Richmond, at Kenilworth Park this afternoon, despite the fact that the Richmonders batted eleven hits against nine by Petersburg, and only two errors, against five by the locals. The Richmonders' errors were made at critical stages of the game, and Cardozo, the Hermitage pitcher, gave four bases on balls, while Ford, for Petersburg, showed better control, and allowed no passes to first base.

Ford also did good work at the bat, making a three-bagger with men on bases, and two singles. Ellyson, the Hermitage left-fielder, who was substituted for Cardozo in the seventh inning, also batted well, getting a two-bagger and two singles. Hermitage made a strong bid for the game in the eighth and ninth innings, scoring twice in the eighth and once in the ninth.

Heath, Petersburg's second baseman, made two two-baggers, and Eanes, one. Batteries—Petersburg—Ford and Fowlkes. Hermitage—Cardozo, Ellyson and Radcliffe. Umpire, Mr. Wells. Attendance, 400.

TWO HITS FOR THE LOSERS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 4.—An unfortunate wild throw by Clayton in the sixth inning, which allowed Hooker to go to third, proved to be the downfall of Roanoke here this afternoon in a game that was replete with fast plays, by 1 to 0.

It was a pitchers' battle in which Carter, as far as hits were concerned, had the better of it, but Reynolds was just as effective as was Carter, when the Shoemakers were on the sacks. The hits of the Highlanders amounted to a scratch to Carter in the first, and a clean drive by McMahon to centre in the second. All of the hits of the home team were clean, except Betscher's, in the eighth. Excepting Hooker, not a member of the home team went past second base, and Cooley was the only Highlander to get to the middle of the diamond. He was left on second in the second inning, and Cooley and Bateman were left at first. The crowd was the largest seen here at a game since the league was organized. The score:

Mike Cassidy was up against it for one inning yesterday afternoon, and then settled down for the remainder of the game, with the result that, with glit-edged support, he won out to the tune of 2 to 1.

The Colts are "fit" for championship, and with the style of ball as presented yesterday it will be a hard thing for any of the teams in the league to head them. The infield cut off some mighty nice grounders, and with the exception of Wallace's error, in dropping a difficult chance in centre, the game would have been an errorless one, so far as the Colts are concerned. It was almost as good for the Trunkers. They erred but once, but could not connect with the Mighty Mike as frequently as the exigencies of the situation demanded, and that is whereby the tale hangs.

Shuman Found Easy.

Big Shuman has been easy fruit for the Colts this season. He struck a snag with them in Portsmouth, when he was handled roughly, and he had the same thing to contend with yesterday.

The big fellow has tried many leagues, including one of the big ones, and now he is simply pie for the Colts. It is a pity that, if this thing keeps up, there will be something doing in the Portsmouth line-up before the season is much older, and as Owner Bland is not much stuck on Shuman, it is not hard to guess what is liable to happen.

With the exception of the first inning Cassidy was in the box for fair. Had he gathered himself together in the first inning, there would have been a shutout for the Blandies, and he would have been more of a hero than he turned out to be before the game was over. It looked bad on the start, and the Mighty Mike looked easy for the visitors, as he was as wild as some of the sayings of the "Honorary Member." After passing four men, and giving the opposition a chance to score one, run and after Shaffer had directed Long to warm up, he settled down, and not another pass was handed out during the game. In five innings it was one, two, three, and never after the first inning did a man get to second base. It was a shutout by the Blandies, and the runners who happened to reach first were always headed off before they got to the second sack.

Some Pretty Playing.

There was some pretty ball-playing by both teams. Moss, at short for Charley Bland's aggregation, cut out one or two hits, and Shuman's rough work in pulling down possible hits helped to keep the score down to what it appears in the appended summary.

Had the visitors not put up so strong an opposition there would have been a bigger score recorded, but the Trunkers are in the game for the first time, although at no time after the first inning was there a sound like victory for them. All they had to do was to hold down the fast-flying Colts.
